

MOVEMENT FOR UNDERSTANDING LEARNING RUBRIC

Strands of Learning	Working towards curriculum Level 5	Working at curriculum Level 5	Working above curriculum Level 5	Working well above curriculum Level 5
Understanding and applying of strategies	Sometimes knows what strategies should be used but can't carry them out in an activity.	Regularly knows what strategies to use and apply in an activity but often makes mistakes when carrying them out.	Always knows what strategies to use and apply in an activity and is able to effectively carry them out.	Consistently knows what strategies to use and apply in an activity and is able to carry them out to benefit the team and overall result of the game.
Developing strategies	Can sometimes contribute ideas to develop a game strategy.	Regularly contributes ideas to help develop a game strategy.	Always contributes valid ideas to develop an effective strategy.	Consistently contributes valid ideas to develop an effective strategy. If the strategy is not working she is aware and able to help make adjustments.
Control and consistency in skill performance	Sometimes demonstrates control over her body and equipment during skill performance.	Regularly demonstrates control over her body and equipment during skill performance.	Always demonstrates control over her body and equipment during skill performance.	Consistently and effectively demonstrates control over her body and equipment during skill performance.
Transfer between contexts	Can sometimes transfer knowledge and understanding between activities.	Can regularly transfer knowledge and understanding between activities.	Can always transfer knowledge and understanding between activities.	Can consistently transfer knowledge and understanding between activities.
Application of complex skills (Performing a series skills in sequence)	Can sometimes use complex skills.	Can regularly use complex skills.	Can always use complex skills in a performance situation.	Can consistently and effectively apply complex skills and have the ability to improve others skills due to her application.