Make a copy of this form and rename it with “ your name Subject + NCEA level - Assessment Appeal 2024”

After completing this form it must be shared with the Head of Department within 5 school days of the assessment being handed back to the student via google classroom or Turnitin.

The student needs to complete Sections A and B. Share this form to the Head of the Department via email (not just sharing the google doc)

Section A - Completed by student

Name:				Date:
Subject:		Level:		Achievement Standard number
Date grade given to student:
Grade being appealed (N, A, M, E):

Section B - Completed by student

Reason for Appeal: Using the criteria for N/A/M/E of the standard you need to clearly explain how you have shown evidence against the AS that the teacher has not considered while marking your work. Eg if you have been awarded an M and you think your work is an E identify in your work where you have evidence of E.

Section C - Completed by Head of Department following a discussion with the student
